DEPOSITION OF VICTOR ESPINOSA

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1978

House of Representatives

President John F. Kennedy
Subcommittee of the Select Committee on Assassinations

Washington, D. C.

The deposition of Victor Espinosa was taken at 3:30 p.m., in the office of the Select Committee on Assassinations
in Room 3370 of the office of the Committee, Second and D Streets, S.W., Washington, D. C.

Present: Jonathan Blackmer and John Hornbeck, Counsel to the Select Committee.

Also Present: Ms. Elizabeth Berning, Chief Clerk to the Select Committee.

1 Whereupon,

2 VICTOR ESPINOSA

3 having been duly sworn by the Chief Clerk to the Select
4 Committee, was examined under the rules of the Select
5 Committee and testified as follows:

6 Mr. Blackmer. We are present in the Select Committee's
7 offices to depose you. My name is Jonathan Blackmer and I am
8 an attorney with the Select Committee on Assassinations.

9 By virtue of Rule 4 of House Resolution 222, I am
10 empowered to take statements under oath. Shortly, Mr. John
11 Hornbeck will join us, who is a senior staff counsel on this
12 committee, to further ask questions of the witness.

13 What is your full name, sir?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Victor Espinosa.

15 Mr. Blackmer. And you are here for the purpose of 16 giving a voluntary statement before this committee?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Blackmer. I have given you a copy of the Committee
19 Rules, House Resolution 222, 460 and 760. You are not now
20 under subpoena, are you?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Blackmer. You are here voluntarily?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

24 Mr. Blackmer. You have the right to have counsel pre-
25 sent if you wish. There is no counsel here and I assume that

1 is of your own choice.

2 Mr. Espinosa. I don't see it is necessary, anyway.

3 Mr. Blackmer. The entire record of this deposition will
4 be transcribed. We will send you a copy for you to read,
5 verify and return to the Select Committee, after which we will
6 send you your own personal copy. Should you wish to make any 7 changes in the substance of the transcript, this must be done
8 before a federal magistrate.

9 I know you are residing in London, and if it is necessary
10 to make any changes, if you feel corrections are necessary, if 11 you would please call us, we will try to make arrangements over
12 there for that to be done.

13 I would like to begin the questioning with a little back-
14 ground. You were born in Cuba; is that correct?

15 Mr. Espinosa. That is right.

16 Mr. Blackmer. And you resided there until when?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Until 1959.

18 Mr. Blackmer. And at that time you came to the United
19 States?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Approximately in 1957 or 1958, were you a
22 student at the University of Havana?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I was.

24 Mr. Blackmer. And as a student at the University of 25 Havana, were you engaged in any underground activities with

1 either anti-Batista or later anti-Castro?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, both.

3 Mr. Blackmer. And could you tell us the nature of the 4 activities which were directed against the Batista regime?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Well, different kinds of clandestine
6 activities.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Would that be in the nature of raising
8 explosives or arms for paramilitary use?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, mainly.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Were you involved in any individual sabo-
11 tage operations?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

13 Mr. Blackmer. What specific activities were those? Was 14 there anything that comes to mind?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No, not really.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Was it aimed at the economy more than 17 individual members of the Batista regime?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Not so much the economy, but as an indi-
19 vidual member.

20 Mr. Blackmer. High level officials?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Were you involved with Fidel Castro in 23 these anti-Batista activities?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No.

25 Mr. Blackmer. Who were you working with?

1 Mr. Espinosa. With students, the Revolutionary Council of
2 the University of Havana.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Who are the particular leaders?

4 Mr. Espinosa. There was Echeverria.

5 Mr. Blackmer. Do you have a first name?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Jose Antonio; and Cubela, Porton Chaumon
7 and a few others.

8 Mr. Blackmer. How were your activities financed?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Mainly by bonds that were being sold to 10 sympathizers of the revolutionary party.

11 Mr. Blackmer. Were there any large contributors that you
12 can think of?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I am sure there were, but not that I had 14 any knowledge of.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Your family were landowners, were they not,
16 in Cuba?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Blackmer. And were they part of the upper class?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Were they at all sponsoring your acti-
21 vities?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Not that I know of.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Could you tell us when you first met
24 Rolando Cubela?

25 Mr. Espinosa. It was a long time ago. We were children

1 and he used to go to school in the same town in which I was
2 born in Cuba.

3 Mr. Blackmer. So you had known him many years before your 4 activities started.

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

6 Mr. Blackmer. At the University?

7 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

8 Mr. Blackmer. Who were some of his associates in the 9 underground activities?

10 Mr. Espinosa. For example, one Cubela and Machado.

11 Mr. Blackmer. Do you have the first names?

12 Mr. Espinosa. I cannot remember the first names because 13 we used to call him "Machaletto" and Joe Westbrook.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Is that an American?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No, he was a Cuban.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know what any of these individuals
17 are doing now?

18 Mr. Espinosa. They are dead.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Are any of these individuals now with the 20 Castro government?

21 Mr. Espinosa. I think Chaumon is with the Castro govern-
22 ment, and I think Raminda -- and it has been so many years --
23 and Naranjo and the rest of the people I mentioned there

1 are dead.

2 Mr. Blackmer. When did your interest change from being
3 anti-Batista to pro-Castro?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I was never pro-Castro; being against
5 Batista does not mean you are pro-Castro.

6 I think very shortly after Castro took over I began to be
7 anti-Castro.

8 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever meet Castro?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know of any people who were closely
11 associated with him?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Only one person.

13 Mr. Blackmer. And that was whom?

14 Mr. Espinosa. That was Jose Smith, and he landed in Cuba
15 when Castro landed and he was killed at that time. That is the 16 only person whom I knew was close to him.

17 Mr. Blackmer. When Castro landed in Cuba, was that in 18 1956?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, 1956.

20 Mr. Blackmer. So your activities began approximately in 21 1957.

22 Mr. Espinosa. No, I would say 1955.

23 Mr. Blackmer. During this period of time, did you know
24 Pedro Diaz Lanz?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No, I did not.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Have you subsequently known about Pedro
2 Diaz Lanz?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Did you have any personal knowledge of
5 him?

6 Mr. Espinosa. What do you mean by "personal knowledge?"

7 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever have any contact with him?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I did.

9 Mr. Blackmer. And what period of time was that?

10 Mr. Espinosa. It was, I would say, in 1959 and 1960 in 11 Miami.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall who he was with when you saw
13 him?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No, I do not recall really, and I only met
15 him once or twice.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know an individual by the name of 17 Frank Sturgis?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Where did you meet this individual?

20 Mr. Espinosa. In Miami.

21 Mr. Blackmer. In what time?

22 Mr. Espinosa. 1959 or 1960.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Was he with Diaz Lanz when you met him?

24 Mr. Espinosa. I can't recall.

25 Mr. Blackmer. When you were living in Havana in 1958 and

1 1959, did you remember frequenting the Hotel Nacional.

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I did.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know an individual there by the 4 name of Michael McLaney?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Would you explain how you first met Mr.
7 McLaney and the nature of your relationship?

8 Mr. Espinosa. I met him first because the manager of the 9 hotel, the social manager of the hotel was a friend of mine.

10 Mr. Blackmer. And his name was what?

11 Mr. Espinosa. It was Callejas, and he subsequently 12 introduced me to Bill McLaney who ultimately introduced me to 13 Mike McLaney.

14 Mr. Blackmer. And what was the nature of your 15 relationship?

16 Mr. Espinosa. It was just social in Cuba.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Did you go out with them to dinner?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, sometimes.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Were either of the McLaney brothers
20 involved in any clandestine activities against either Batista
21 or Castro to your knowledge at that time?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Not that I know of.

23 Mr. Blackmer. You came to the United States, you
24 say, in December of 1959?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I think so.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Were you sponsored by Mike McLaney?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I was.

3 Mr. Blackmer. And did he help you in getting over here
4 financially?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Were you trained by the Central 7 Intelligence Agency in any clandestine paramilitary training of 8 any kind?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I believe it was then.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Could you tell us your first contact with 11 the Central Intelligence Agency and your first role in the 12 Cuban exile movement prior to the Bay of Pigs in the United 13 States?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I heard when I came to the States
15 they were forming some kind of a brigade or something to invade
16 Cuba, and I told different friends of mine in Miami to let me
17 know when the thing was happening. I went to New York to work
18 and they contacted me at one point, and they were recruiting
19 people to take part in this activity, and I went back to Miami
20 and I enlisted myself.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Could you tell us who it was that contacted
22 you?

23 Mr. Espinosa. I think it was Mario Jiminez.

24 Mr. Blackmer. He contacted you and came back to Miami,
25 and where did you go to enlist?

1 Mr. Espinosa. I went to one of the enlisting houses, and
2 I think there was one house where you go over there and
3 enlist.

4 Mr. Blackmer. And do you recall any particulars about
5 that house, who was running it and who was there?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know an individual by the name of
8 Howard Hunt?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I have heard about him.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Have you seen photographs of him?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Was this individual involved in any of 13 this early contact you had with the Central Intelligence
14 Agency?

15 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know.

16 Mr. Blackmer. After you enlisted in Miami, where were 17 you then sent?

18 Mr. Espinosa. I was sent to Guatemala.

19 Mr. Blackmer. And this would have been approximately 20 when?

21 Mr. Espinosa. This would have been approximately ---

22 Mr. Blackmer. Could it possibly have been in the 23 beginning of 1960?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No, it was not the beginning of 1960. I
25 would say it was the toward the end of 1960, the third quarter

1 of 1960. It was June or July, approximately.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Did you first go to Panama or first to 3 Guatemala?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I went to Guatemala and then went to 5 Panama.

1 Mr. Blackmer. What type of activities were you trained
2 in?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Just general activities, general,
4 conventional military warfare and guerrilla warfare and
5 training in explosives and munitions and clandestine
6 operations, et cetera.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall any of the people who
8 trained you? Were they Americans?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, there were some Americans and some 10 Europeans too.

11 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall the names of these 12 individuals?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I cannot recall the names. I know one
14 person, an American of Philippine origin, and he was known to 15 us as Colonel Vallejo.

16 Mr. Blackmer. During this training, did you know an 17 individual by the name of Carlos Hernandez?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I did.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Was there an individual by the name of 20 John Koch Gene involved with you?

21 Mr. Espinosa. I do not recall that name.

22 Mr. Blackmer. How about Acelo Pedro Amores?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. How about Miguel Alvarez Jiminez?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Is this the same man who contacted you or
2 a different Jiminez?

3 Mr. Espinosa. This is a different Jiminez.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Any relation to Mario?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Was there anyone else that you later had 7 acquaintances with that you trained with?

8 Mr. Espinosa. There were a dozen; there were many.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever go in any infiltration raids
10 into Cuba as part of this?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Can you recall any of the specific details
13 of any of the particular raids?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. One time we went to a raid about 20
15 kilometers in Havana and we were supposed to knock out this
16 Navy installation somewhere, and all of the raids were a
17 different nature, like if we went into the country, and 18 getting information of the country and bringing people out of 19 the country.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall any specific individuals
21 that you went on these raids with?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I recall a few.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Could you give us their names?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Miguel Alvarez; Calcie Nundez was another,
25 and Frank--and I can't remember Frank's last name.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Was he American?

2 Mr. Espinosa. No, Cuban. It was Ugarte, and I can't
3 remember his first name.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Approximately when were these raids,
5 before or after the Bay of Pigs?

6 Mr. Espinosa. They were before and after the Bay of 7 Pigs.

8 Mr. Blackmer. How many raids did you go on after the Bay
9 of Pigs?

10 Mr. Espinosa. After the Bay of Pigs, I think I went in 11 two or three times.

12 Mr. Blackmer. And do you recall the last raid that you
13 went on that was sponsored by the CIA, approximately what date
14 that was?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Possibly it was four or five months after 16 the invasion.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Sometime in the summer of 1961?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Were you involved in the Bay of Pigs
20 invasion itself?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Not directly.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Were you infiltrated into Cuba before the 23 Bay of Pigs?

24 Mr. Espinosa. I was being infiltrated at the same time
25 that the Bay of Pigs was taking place, and we were ordered to

1 go back to Miami and then when we got back to Miami, we found
2 out that they had landed.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Did they then try to send you back?

4 Mr. Espinosa. There was a little hustle at that time;
5 everything was very much in the air and we were on stand-by,
6 but we were not sent back.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall whether or not any members of 8 Customs or Immigration in the Miami area were made aware of any 9 of your particular raids so as not to stop you?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Would you rephrase that again?

11 Mr. Blackmer. The various raids that you went on, I
12 assume many of them were from the Miami area.

13 Mr. Espinosa. They were from the Keys; down toward Key
14 West.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Were you aware of any monitoring by Customs
16 or Immigration officials of the United States Government?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Would -- what do you mean by "monitoring"?

18 Mr. Blackmer. These agencies are charged with the respon-
19 sibility of enforcing the neutrality acts. They try to limit
20 any hostile acts emanating from this country.

21 Were you aware that they were told specifically about your
22 operations so that they did not stop you?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. Were you ever stopped?

25

1 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I was stopped.

2 Mr. Blackmer. While you were working for the CIA?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No, never.

4 Mr. Blackmer. When were you stopped?

5 Mr. Espinosa. After I stopped activities with the CIA.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Approximately when was this?

7 Mr. Espinosa. One time was in June of 1963.

8 Mr. Blackmer. That was in Miami?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, in Miami, and I had been served by 10 Customs agents two different times and I don't know the legal
11 name for it, notification. If I was caught in a boat or in a 12 plane or trying to go somewhere, related to any kind of 13 anti-Castro activity, I will get five years in jail or $5,000
14 fine or 10 years in jail.

15 Mr. Blackmer. You were in fact stopped once on June 15, 16 1963?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Were you subsequently fined or any charges
19 brought against you?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No. I was taken to a prison and anyway I
21 was released the next day.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Let us, if we can, deal with that incident
23 specifically. Our records indicate that on June 15 of 1963,
24 outside of Miami, you and four other individuals were stopped
25 by Customs and FBI agents with a twin-engine beach craft

1 airplane that you were attempting to load with explosives and
2 bombs for your intended mission, which was to bomb an oil
3 refinery in Havana.

4 Could you tell us whose idea that operation emanated
5 from?

6 Mr. Espinosa. From me.

7 Mr. Blackmer. It was your idea?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Did you get any assistance from any other
10 individual for the raid?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I got assistance from Carlos
12 Hernandez, from Miguel Alvarez and that is the other kind of 13 assistance you are asking for?

14 Mr. Blackmer. Financial or other?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Financial assistance from McLaney.

16 Mr. Blackmer. How much money did McLaney give you for 17 this project?

18 Mr. Espinosa. I cannot recall. He gave us whatever we 19 needed to buy the explosives and so on.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Who got the airplanes?

21 Mr. Espinosa. It was Sam Benton.

22 Mr. Blackmer. And how did you know Sam Benton?

23 Mr. Espinosa. I met him at McLaney's house several 24 times.

25 Mr. Blackmer. How was he introduced?

1 Mr. Espinosa. You mean in what ---

2 Mr. Blackmer. What you understood to be his particular
3 role.

4 Mr. Espinosa. He was like a friend of mine and a friend
5 of Mike's and I guess Mike wanted him to front for him or be 6 the one who got the airplane.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Did he have any specific knowledge of 8 planes or munitions or anything of that nature to where he
9 would be a person that you would go to get these things?

10 Mr. Espinosa. I wouldn't know that but I don't think so,
11 and I wouldn't think so.

12 Mr. Blackmer. So, you think it was really Mike who 13 secured the planes and used Sam as the front man.

14 Mr. Espinosa. No, I think Mike told him to get us what 15 we wanted more or less and he got it.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Was it your understanding that Benton was 17 connected with the government in any way, the U.S. government?

18 Mr. Espinosa. No, at no time did I believe he was 19 connected with the U.S. Government.

20 Mr. Blackmer. And had Mike at any time to your knowledge
21 been connected with the U.S. Government?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Not that I know of.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Where did you get the explosives that you
24 were going to use?

25 Mr. Espinosa. I think we got them in Fort Lauderdale.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Did you personally get them or someone
2 else got them?

3 Mr. Espinosa. I think Miguel Alvarez got them.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Can you tell us a little bit about what
5 the plan was for this bombing raid?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Well, the plan was to try to get the 7 refinery out of service or out of production so instead of 8 bringing crude oil into the country and be refined in Cuba,
9 they would have to bring in the gasoline. So, that would have 10 made a very easy target for us in order to blow up the tankers
11 or whatever vessels were used to bring in the gasoline.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Were you aware that any of these vessels
13 that were carrying oil to Cuba may have been flying a Russian 14 flag?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No, this was a hypothetical thing at the 16 time.

17 Mr. Blackmer. It was not your intention at that time to 18 provoke an incident between the U.S. and Russia?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No, that would have stopped us from 20 blowing up the Russian ship.

21 Mr. Blackmer. So, you had some knowledge, I understand,
22 of the particular oil refinery that you were going after?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

24 Mr. Blackmer. How did you acquire that knowledge?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Well, through a family businesses.

1 Mr. Blackmer. And what specifically was that business?

2 Mr. Espinosa. It was--there were industrial inspectors
3 who used to inspect sugar refineries, alcohol and places where
4 alcohol was being made and gasoline refineries, or oil
5 refineries, et cetera.

6 Mr. Blackmer. And you had personally gone over this
7 particular refinery?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, as a younger man I used to go there
9 with inspectors sometimes to make some pocket money or 10 something.

11 Mr. Blackmer. A part-time job?

12 Mr. Espinosa. A part time job, yes.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Did you talk McLaney into financing this
14 operation?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

16 Mr. Blackmer. And did you know what his particular
17 interest was in seeing this operation successfully completed?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I mean, first we have to say that if 19 the operation was successful, perhaps we had a chance to 20 economically cripple the country and consequently bring about 21 a change in the politics. Of course, a change in the 22 political situation at the time would have been a favorable
23 change for Mr. McLaney's economics or business out there.

24 Mr. Blackmer. So, McLaney was personally interested in 25 regaining some of his possessions in Cuba.

1 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, exactly like that.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know if he was involved in any of
3 the internal politics in Cuba in the sense--do you know if he
4 was sponsoring any particular exile leaders who could possibly
5 in the foreseeable future go back to Cuba and take over once
6 Castro was eliminated?

7 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know that. I don't think so.

8 Mr. Blackmer. So, is it your opinion that Mr. McLaney
9 was doing what little he could and hoping that others would do
10 a little and add to the possible fall of the Castro regime?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Exactly.

12 Mr. Blackmer. In July of 1963 outside of New Orleans,
13 Louisiana, a large catch of dynamite and home-made bombs were 14 found in the home of Bill McLaney. Could you tell us what you
15 know about that catch of arms that was discovered?

16 Mr. Espinosa. It was taken there by me and it was to be 17 used in other raids.

18 Mr. Blackmer. A similar raid?

19 Mr. Espinosa. As the one that was in Cuba.

20 Mr. Blackmer. I understand that some of the people that
21 participated with you in the June 15 attempt also participated
22 with you in the July attempt.

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

24 Mr. Blackmer. First of all, it is my understanding that 25 you planned on using a B-25 or B-26 bomber.

1 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Was it the B-25 or B-26?

3 Mr. Espinosa. I cannot remember, one or the other.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Who was it that was to get the plane?

5 Mr. Espinosa. The plane was to be delivered to us over
6 there.

7 Mr. Blackmer. At Pontchartrain?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, and we were to go over there on the 9 plane and take off.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Specifically, who was going to go on the 11 actual flight?

12 Mr. Espinosa. It was going to be a pilot, whose name I
13 can't remember right now.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Was it Antonio Soto Vasquez?

15 Mr. Espinosa. I am not sure; it could be.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Who else was to go on the plane?

17 Mr. Espinosa. There were only three people to go on the 18 plane. It was going to be Antonio, if it was--I am not sure,
19 and Miguel and myself or either Migual or Carlos Hernandez.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Was Sam Benton, once again, going to get 21 you the plane?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Who was going to get you the plane?

24 Mr. Espinosa. I have no idea. We were tried; the whole
25 thing was departmentalized.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Whose responsibility was it, to your
2 knowledge -- was it to get the plane?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Financial responsibility, you mean?

4 Mr. Blackmer. Financial responsibility.

5 Mr. Espinosa. It was Mike McLaney.

6 Mr. Blackmer. And to the best of your knowledge, Mike was 7 going to make sure that the plane was at a specified location?

8 Mr. Espinosa. That is right.

9 Mr. Blackmer. And as to the pilot, did you take the 10 pilot with you or was the pilot supposed to be there with the 11 plane?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No. I went there first to that place, and 13 then the guy who was going to go with the plane, Carlos
14 Hernandez, came from Miami; and the pilot was supposed to meet
15 us there once the plane was there or we knew the plane was 16 coming, and he was going to fly from Miami to New Orleans.

17 Mr. Blackmer. The pilot didn't come with Carlos
18 Hernandez?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know an individual named Lauchli
21 from Colesville, Illinois?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

23 Mr. Blackmer. How did you come to know Lauchli?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Someone gave me his phone number, and I
25 can't recall who did it by now, and I called him and I

1 inquired if I could go and see him and get some explosives and
2 get some special detonators made for the bombs we were going
3 to drop in the raid.

4 Mr. Blackmer. This individual that told you about him,
5 what did the individual tell you about Luchli?

6 Mr. Espinosa. It was just the John Birch Society who had
7 helped some of the Cubans and different officials before.

8 Mr. Blackmer. You telephoned this individual and met
9 him, I assume, where?

10 Mr. Espinosa. At his place, at his house.

11 Mr. Blackmer. That was where?

12 Mr. Espinosa. In Colesville, Illinois.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Did you then go with him to pick up
14 explosives?

15 Mr. Espinosa. First, we picked up the explosives but we 16 left them at the place where he had them and then we went on 17 for three or four days making the detonators which were made
18 from the heads of 61 millimeter mortar shells or 60 millimeter
19 mortar shells.

20 Mr. Blackmer. I assume Mr. Lauchli supplied all of the 21 individual parts and you and Luchli together made the bombs?

22 Mr. Espinosa. We put them together and he had a very 23 nice working room.

24 Mr. Blackmer. This was in Colesville, Illinois?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

1 Mr. Blackmer. And then did you subsequently take the
2 bombs and munitions with you to New Orleans?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

4 Mr. Blackmer. When you went to New Orleans, where did
5 you stay?

6 Mr. Espinosa. I stayed at McLaney's house.

7 Mr. Blackmer. The same cottage at Lake Pontchartrain?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes but let me say something first. I
9 stayed the first night in a motel, and the next day I drove 10 because I wasn't sure I could find a place at night and then
11 the next day I drove over there.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Did you at any time contact Bill McLaney?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I can't recall if I did or not, I probably 14 did.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Do you recall if someone else may 16 have given you a key or was the door left open? In other
17 words, what I am trying to establish is: Did Bill know about 18 the whole operation?

19 Mr. Espinosa. I can't say for certain.

20 Mr. Blackmer. And you do not recall whether or not he 21 physically came to the cottage where you were?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know anyone else in New Orleans at 24 the time that you might have been in contact with?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know an individual by the name of
2 Guy Bannister?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Not that I know of.

4 Mr. Blackmer. A former FBI agent and active, at the time,
5 in New Orleans?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know, or have you ever heard of 8 David Ferrie?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Are you familiar with an individual by the
2 name of Carlos Marcello?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No.

4 Mr. Blackmer. Nick Popich?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Peter Gurisco?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Blackmer. After you arrived at Lake Pontchartrain, a
9 day or so later, I assume Carlos Hernandez came and met you
10 and I assume you went over the plan of the operation.

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

12 Mr. Blackmer. Could you tell us at what point you
13 decided against going on the operation?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Well, somehow the father of Fred Gill, who 15 was going to arm the plane, died and subsequently we had to 16 restructure and the guy had to go to Miami and shortly after 17 the burial or something we found out he had been picked up by 18 the FBI, so we had to call the operation off.

19 Mr. Blackmer. And at any time did you see the planes?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No.

21 Mr. Blackmer. After the operation was cancelled, where 22 did you go?

23 Mr. Espinosa. I came to New York.

24 Mr. Blackmer. Did you contact McLaney?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I did.

1 Mr. Blackmer. And did you explain to him that the
2 operation had been cancelled?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, for the time being.

4 Mr. Blackmer. What was his reaction?

5 Mr. Espinosa. I explained it to him and I thought he was 6 reasonable.

7 Mr. Blackmer. After the June 15th raid was stopped by the 8 FBI, did you contact Mike McLaney?

9 Mr. Espinosa. Of course.

10 Mr. Blackmer. What was his reaction to that?

11 Mr. Espinosa. He was always a good gambler and he took 12 things very philosophically.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Was he upset that the Federal Bureau of 14 Investigation had, in essence, infiltrated the operation?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Was he aware that someone in the operation
17 had leaked the information to the FBI?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, we told him.

19 Mr. Blackmer. What was his reaction to that?

20 Mr. Espinosa. We told him we wanted to kill the guy, but 21 he said, "No, you shouldn't do that."

22 Mr. Blackmer. After your trip to New York and your 23 contact with Mike McLaney, did you ever again propose a similar
24 operation?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Why was that?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Well, you get tired of failure.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Well, it was only twice at this time.

4 Mr. Espinosa. It is only twice, but up to five or six
5 yers doing the same thing.

6 Mr. Blackmer. In 1962, there was a raid on a hotel in 7 Havana, a shelling of a hotel in Havana by members of the 8 DRE.

9 Mr. Espinosa. It was 1966.

10 Mr. Blackmer. No, 1962, by members of the DRE, which was 11 an anti-Castro exile organization at the time.

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Were you familiar with that raid?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know that Carlos Hernandez was on 16 that raid?

17 Mr. Espinosa. I have heard that he was, but I wasn't
18 sure.

19 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know Manuel Salvat?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I can't recall.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Also on that raid was an individual named
22 Udalia Mayar.

23 Did you ever hear of that individual?

24 Mr. Espinosa. I think so, yes.

25 Mr. Blackmer. And do you recall what you have heard

1 about that individual?

2 Mr. Espinosa. No.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Were you aware at any time of any 4 organized crime efforts to sponsor similar raids similar to 5 the one that you were on?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. When you were living in Havana and 8 frequently in the Hotel Nacional, did you ever know an
9 individual named Norman Rothman?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

11 Mr. Blackmer. What was the nature of your relationship
12 with him?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I just saw him a couple of times; that is 14 all.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Did you not in fact know his son?

16

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Blackmer. And did you know his son in Havana or 19 Miami?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I met him in Miami.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Was there a particular hotel or bar that 22 you used to meet?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, there was a bar in a hotel in Miami
24 Beach. He used to have this bar, and I think we called him
25 "Cappy," his nick-name, and we used to go quite often to his

1 bar.

2 Mr. Blackmer. And was the elder Rothman there on 3 occasion?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Maybe a couple of times, yes.

5 Mr. Blackmer. But you had no specific association with 6 the elder Rothman?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Blackmer. And at no time did Norman Rothman have 9 need of your services as far as implementing any clandestine
10 activities?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No.

12 Mr. Blackmer. So, it was just Mike McLaney.

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know an individual named Frank
15 Bender?

16 Mr. Espinosa. I don't think so.

17 Mr. Blackmer. In Havana once again, did you have any 18 contact with the American Embassy with respect to your
19 underground activities?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know any individuals in your group
22 who had connections with the American Embassy?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know whether or not your friend,
25 Rolando Cubela, had any contact with the American Embassy?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Did you have any contact with the Central
3 Intelligence Agency in Havana?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Not many, but from a good friend of mine,
5 yes.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Who was that?

7 Mr. Espinosa. Carlos Tepedino. I don't know for sure he 8 was an agent.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Tepedino was a friend of Cubela, and he
10 had contact with the CIA?

11 Mr. Espinosa. I cannot tell you for sure if he had 12 contact with the CIA but this is what we all believed at the 13 time.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Is there any individual that you may have 15 suspected that he had contact with?

16 Mr. Espinosa. No.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Have you heard of an individual named
18 David Phillips?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever see Frank Sturgis at any of 21 the gambling casinos in Havana?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Were you aware of any of Frank Sturgis'
24 activities with Fidel Castro prior to Castro's take-over?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No.

1 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know an individual named Gerald
2 Patrick Hemming?

3 Mr. Espinosa. I think I met him once or twice in Miami.

4 Mr. Blackmer. And did you have any dealings with 5 Hemming?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing at all.

7 Mr. Blackmer. What did you know about Hemming?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing. What we thought we knew about 9 him is that he was always mixing with the Cubans that were 10 trying to do something but the word was he was working for the 11 FBI or CIA or somebody, and no one ever took him very 12 seriously about anything or confided in him for anything.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Where were you on November 22, 1963?

14 Mr. Espinosa. That was the assassination?

15 Mr. Blackmer. Yes.

16 Mr. Espinosa. In New York.

17 Mr. Blackmer. When you learned of the assassination--and 18 I assume you saw newspaper articles and television coverage of 19 the assassination--did you recognize Lee Harvey Oswald as 20 having seen him before?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Had you heard anything after the 23 assassination from any of your friends in the Cuban exile
24 community that may have implicated any one of the old Cuban
25 exiles in the assassination?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No, never.

2 Mr. Blackmer. After the Bay of Pigs, what was the
3 reaction to him of the Cuban exiles that you knew? I am sure
4 they were very disappointed and were many of them violently
5 angry against Kennedy himself or the U.S. Government?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Not really against him, against the CIA
7 mainly or against the government and not against Kennedy.

8 Mr. Blackmer. What was their general feeling as the 9 cause of the failure of the Bay of Pigs?

10 Mr. Espinosa. The CIA.

11 Mr. Blackmer. How do you mean?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Well, should I go into this a little?

13 Mr. Blackmer. Yes, I think so.

14 Mr. Espinosa. When the question was risen by the pilots
15 in Guatemala, if you are going to go to the Bay, go in with a
16 B-25 or B-26. B-26, let us say, is a tactical bomber plane
17 and now this kind of plane, if I remember, it has eight
18 50-caliber machine guns in the nose and two in the tail and so 19 on.

20 And in order for this plane to fly from Guatemala to Cuba
21 and be able to have a feeder for 30 minutes operation in the 22 area and bomb or machine gun for 30 minutes and come back to
23 Guatemala, all of this ammunition and all of the machine guns
24 have to be taken from the plane and put additional gasoline
25 tanks in.

1 So, the question was aroused -- and how do you say in
2 English -- it was raised of what happens when we get there
3 without any fighter protection and the planes are going to
4 be in the air and they are going to be knocked down?

5 So, the answer to that was that there were going to be 6 two or three bombing raids and one in San Antonio Bay in 7 Havana and another one in another place and another one in
8 Valdo Beach at the airport, and just destroy it and make it a
9 pretentious strike and destroy Castro's air force on the 10 ground.

11 So, everybody was very content with this explanation, and 12 the strike took over and Roa, who was a Cuban ambassador to 13 the United Nations, made a big fuss at the time. So, there
14 was a big fuss in the United Nations and they came up with the 15 pictures of the planes, and then it was found that this story
16 that the air force had been bombed by Cuban pilots belonging to 17 Fidel Castro's army who had defected, it was a lie because 18 the models of the Cuban planes were a different model;
19 like you have a DC-9B or DC-9C, or is that right?

20 So, when Stevenson, who was ambassador to the United 21 Nations -- when he went to Kennedy and the third strike was 22 called off, which left Castro with about two or three planes
23 were left as a consequence of the Stevenson convincing
24 the president at a time to call off

25

1 the third raid; so consequently we lost all of the planes.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Is that one of the specific reasons why the
3 invasion failed?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I would think so.

5 Mr. Blackmer. Because Castro's air force was able to 6 annihilate the bombers and also the supply ships?

7 Mr. Espinosa. As long as we had a boat we could really
8 take and maintain a piece of land over there until the forces
9 of the Organization of American States would come in, and as I
10 understood by friends of mine who were there, all of the ships,
11 the battle ships were right there and the carrier and the 12 whole thing.

13 So, I guess the whole thing was that somehow people
14 thought it was as usual, the usual CIA screwed-up thing, and 15 they thought it was Stevenson who really precipitated the 16 whole thing. But nobody -- maybe because they were sympa-
17 thetic, but nobody bothered about blaming Kennedy for it.

18 Mr. Blackmer. So, it was your feeling at the time that 19 the CIA was noted for inefficient operations. In your 20 training, did you feel like you were given adequate and 21 sufficient training?

22 Mr. Espinosa. As I said to you the other day, I did, and 23 300 guys did, but not the whole force that invaded Cuba. And 24 then this might not have been a CIA decision and might have 25 been a decision saying you have to get the guys over there and

1 it is now or never.

2 So, what I am saying is, as I said to you the other day,
3 it is the fault of the Cubans. If we had gotten in there in 4 the beginning and so on and so on.

5 Mr. Blackmer. Did many Cubans understand this to be the 6 situation; that the failure should fall on their shoulders?

7 Mr. Espinosa. They were all heroes, even if they never
8 saw a gun in their lives. They are all heroes, and so you have 9 to blame things on other people and not on yourselves, and the 10 main reason why we failed should fall upon our shoulders to 11 begin with.

12 Mr. Blackmer. It is your testimony then that you par-
13 ticipated in an infiltration before the Bay of Pigs, and 14 after the Bay of Pigs you were on three or four more infil-
15 trations into Cuba?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

17 Mr. Blackmer. And as I recall, what we are trying 18 to do today is get on the record all of the things we had 19 discussed in our interview with you.

20 Mr. Espinosa. Let me tell you something. There was a 21 file somewhere with the days and the people that went into 22 this infiltration, and you didn't do that because I have 23 seen it many, many years ago.

25

1 Mr. Blackmer. Where exactly did you see this file?

2 Mr. Espinosa. I saw it and I was going with somebody who
3 was a civil servant and he showed it to me as a favor but I
4 know there is a file.

5 Mr. Blackmer. And this file you saw, where was it, in
6 Miami?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No, I didn't see it in Miami.

8 Mr. Blackmer. Would you like to tell us where you saw
9 it?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No.

11 Mr. Blackmer. And to your knowledge it details each one 12 of the operations that you personally were involved in?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, and the persons involved and friends
14 of mine and people involved in the other operations with me
15 from the CIA and the whole thing.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Is it your feeling that, as you expressed
17 the other day, that these subsequent operations were merely 18 done by the CIA just to keep control or taps on some of the 19 Cubans?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Either that or to get us killed, one thing
21 or the other.

22 Mr. Blackmer. And you felt that the operations them-
23 selves were meaningless?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Not only that; you two have been in the 25 army, is that right? And you know, you can understand that.

1 Anyway, if you have a box of 30 caliber machine gun
2 ammunition, you know exactly, you know when you open the
3 ammunition box you are going to find the required ammunition
4 and when you start going on the operation and you open up a 30
5 caliber munitions box and you start finding 45 caliber
6 ammunition, you start wondering because these things come like
7 that.

8 After a few years they take them away because it is like
9 a prescription in a pharmacy and they deliver them to you from 10 an army camp or from an army depot or something, and what it
11 says outside, believe me, you will find inside.

12 If you do not find inside what is outside, if you do not
13 find it, you wonder who changed it and why was it changed?

14 Mr. Blackmer. How large were the groups that you
15 infiltrated with?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Small groups, three or four.

17 Mr. Blackmer. And were you parachuted in or were you
18 brought in by sea?

19 Mr. Espinosa. We were always taken in by sea. The name
20 of that Frank I mentioned before it Frank Bernardino.

21 Mr. Blackmer. This was an individual you knew?

22 Mr. Espinosa. He was a good friend of Arttime.

23 Mr. Blackmer. And Cubela?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No.

25

1 Mr. Blackmer. In February of 1963 there was a story
2 circulated that certain Russian technicians were hiding
3 in the hills in Cuba and that they wanted to defect. As
4 a result of this a man by the name of Eddie Bayo or Eduardo
5 Perez, with 10 other men, were infiltrated into Cuba. They 6 were never seen again.

7 Had you heard during the time this story about the 8 Russian technicians?

9 Mr. Espinosa. It is the first time that I heard of it
10 at the time, yes.

11 Mr. Blackmer. That the Russians were in Cuba; but had 12 you heard any of them were hiding and ready to defect?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No.

14 Mr. Blackmer. What had you heard about the Russian
15 technicians at the time?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Well, what I heard at the time was that 17 long before that time, long before 1963, there was Alphonzo
18 Carol and there was Siva -- the last name, and I cannot 19 remember the first name -- and they were in a CIA mission in 20 Cuba and they reported to the CIA, or at least they said they 21 were technicians or they were putting things together and they

25

1 didn't know exactly what it was, so they were not briefed for
2 that particular mission and so I have heard.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Was this before 1962?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Before 1962, yes.

5 Mr. Blackmer. Was it before the Bay of Pigs?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Before the Bay of Pigs.

7 Mr. Blackmer. But you had not heard of that other story.

8 Mr. Espinosa. The first time I heard about this story
9 about the Russians in the hills is now.

10 Mr. Blackmer. And you were aware of General Bayo Coscaya,
11 the general who trained Castro?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I have heard about the old man, yes.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Did you personally know him?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever see him?

16 Mr. Espinosa. No.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Were you aware of any children he may have 18 had?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Blackmer. And you do not know Eddie Bayo or Eduardo
21 Perez?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Blackmer. I think John Hornbeck would 24 like to ask a few questions, especially about Cubela and your 25 relationship with him.

1 John.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you state the first time that you met
3 Rolando Cubela and what your relationship was with him in 4 Cuba?

5 Mr. Espinosa. I must have met Rolando when I was about
6 12 or 13 years old because he used to go, or we used to have a
7 very good protestant school in the city in which I was born.
8 And a lot of people from all over Cuba used to go there to get
9 an education.

10 He was going to this school and I met him at that time,
11 and I was 12 or 13 and he must have been 15 or 16 years old at 12 that time.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Were you friendly with any of his 14 relatives and was he friendly with any of your relatives?

15 Mr. Espinosa. I was friendly with his father and with 16 his mother and mainly with his brother, and his father, I saw
17 him and he was always lost somewhere and I was very friendly
18 with his mother and with his sister, Cari.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. After this first schooling with Rolando,
20 did you continue to stay in contact with him?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, mainly because he was a very good
22 friend of Jose Antonio Echeverria.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. And I take it Echeverria was a good friend
24 of yours?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, we used to live about 20 minutes from

1 each other.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Did the three of you attend any schools of
3 higher education?

4 Mr. Espinosa. We all went to the University of Havana.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. Were all three of you there at 6 approximately the same time?

7 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, they were there before I was there
8 and by the time I got there they were big shots already.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. What was Cubela's course of study at the 10 University and what political activities at the University was 11 he engaged in?

12 Mr. Espinosa. It is funny, Rolando started to be a
13 doctor and he was studying to be a doctor.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. You are speaking of a medical doctor?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, and I do not know whether he 16 graduated or not and his political activities were very, very 17 limited in the sense that he would sort of follow the 18 activities of Antonio mainly.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. And was this their pattern at the 20 University when you arrived, that Echeverria was a real leader
21 and Cubela was associated with him?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. What year did you first enter the 24 University?

25 Mr. Espinosa. 1954.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. And was the University a strongly
2 political kind of institution?

3 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, very much.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. And you graduated from the University?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No, I was there one year and it was that 6 we had a lot of fights with the police and shoot-outs and the 7 like.

1 students and the police regime at that time?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Dictatorship, democracy and the trouble we
3 were having with a dictator you don't like and the Cubans have 4 Castro now.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. Who was the dictator at that time?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Batista.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. And who were the students supporting if 8 there was anyone candidate?

9 Mr. Espinosa. What is that?

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Who did the students support or was it
11 just against Batista?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Mainly the last president, Prio. There
13 was a lot of good nature and ideological politicking in the 14 University, and there was a lot of politicking done by other 15 guys who had been in the University for a long time and the 16 kind of students who never graduated, professional students,
17 and I think Prio was to butter them up and keep them flaming,
18 and there were different sections.

19 But in general, everybody liked Prio and there was a
20 democratic government and here came Castro and he screwed it
21 up.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. When you left the University, were Cubela
23 and Echeverria still at the University?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Did there come a time when you joined them

1 in any anti-Castro activity or anti-Batista activities?

2 Mr. Espinosa. I will explain to you. I was in the 3 University for one year and I didn't study, and all we did the 4 whole time was just trying to get something going against
5 Batista. There were so many clashes with the police and 6 people shot and this and that.

7 And my father took me out and sent me to LSU. I stayed
8 there one year and then I became of age, 18, and my grand-
9 father died, and so I decided to quit and go on and take over
10 the ranch that my grandfather had left me at the time.

11 So, I went over there and minding my own business and 12 working and not messing in politics and I used to spend three 13 or four weeks over there or 40 days and then go to Havana for 14 a weekend or three or four days. And then one time I went to 15 Havana and Rolando called me and he had just--or Antonio had 16 just been to Mexico to see Castro and they had a meeting in 17 Mexico.

18 So, he said, "We are going to have a meeting with about
19 10 or 12 guys in the University and Jose Antonio told me to call
20 you."

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us approximately what year
22 this was?

23 Mr. Espinosa. 1956. This was the day before Colonel
24 Blanco was shot, the day before he was shot.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you identify what position he held?

1 Mr. Espinosa. Who is that?

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Blanco.

3 Mr. Espinosa. He was head of military intelligence.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Under the Batista regime?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. And that day, what ---

7 Mr. Espinosa. That day Rolando called me and he said, "We
8 are going to meet at the square in the University at 1:10
9 o'clock, and Jose Antonio told me to call you." And so I got 10 over there and we were about 10 or 12 guys, and Castro was 11 going to come, and he sent me regards from the guy who was 12 killed and we had to start really cracking and getting things
13 done over there, like shooting the big guys or chief of police
14 and so on; and military intelligence and all of that.

15 So, we made three groups of four people each, and I can
16 remember who was there in case you want the names, but I don't
17 think it is of interest to you because most of them are dead,
18 and maybe except for Rolando.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. If you can remember the groups and what 20 targets those particular groups had.

21 Mr. Espinosa. The people who were there were Rolando,
22 Antonio, Machin and Machado.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Was that his first name?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No, it was his last name, and I can't
25 remember his first name. There was a Rodriguez.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. What was the first name?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Nutosa. There was Joe Westbrook and there
3 was--I cannot remember his name now and he is dead anyway, and
4 all of the people that were there.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. So, did the groups divide into these four
6 areas with specific targets in mind?

7 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, one group was going to take care of 8 Usalace who was chief of police and we were the youngest ones
9 and we got the easiest one, who was Blanco Irco, and then the 10 others were together going to take care of Taberinalla.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. What position did he hold?

12 Mr. Espinosa. The army chief.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Were any of these groups successful in 14 carrying out their targets?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Of the groups, which ones were successful?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Our group; we were the one who got lucky
18 first.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. What was to be your particular role in the 20 assassination of Blanco Irco?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Just to stay in the car and worked with a
22 gun over there to see if someone was coming.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you describe just briefly what
24 occurred the day he was killed?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Rolando called me and I was not at home.

1 I was at my girlfriend's, and it was a Saturday, and he called
2 me over there and he wanted to pick me up and we took my car
3 and we picked up two guys and a hand grenade.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Rifles or pistols?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Two pistols, one 45 and one a Spanish
6 Start, and then we went to pick up Carbo, Pedro Carbo--that is
7 the last name and we gave each other a rendezvous at 10:00
8 o'clock. I left Rolando at his home and I went home and I
9 took a nap and I took a shower and I went there at 10:00
10 o'clock and they were not there.

11 So, I went to three or four different places where we 12 were supposed to be because the guy was supposed to be there,
13 and I thought maybe I was late or they were early. I thought
14 it was my fault and I couldn't find him and about half past 12
15 or 10:00 o'clock, I said, "Well, nothing happened," and I
16 don't know what happened and I went to sleep. The next
17 morning I just heard on the radio that they got the guy.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. After that particular event, what kind of 19 activities against the Batista regime did you engage in with 20 Rolando and Echeverria?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Let me try to synchronize because then I
22 had to leave the country.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. He was immediately suspected?

24 Mr. Espinosa. He was not immediately suspected. At the 25 time we were so young and I don't think they would suspect us

1 and they were thinking of old gangsters, and some of his
2 professional students that were there. Actually, I think that
3 they got Cubela but anyway at that time he was out of the 4 country.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you know where he went?

6 Mr. Espinosa. He went to Miami. I think for a long time
7 I didn't see him and the other people were trying to carry on 8 with their targets, and I wasn't in contact with Antonio for 9 about a year. Then, he called me one day and we had a meeting
10 and we were talking about making an assault on the Presi-
11 dential Palace and that is the last time that I saw him.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately what was the plan date of 13 the assault on the palace?

14 Mr. Espinosa. I think he got a letter--I am sure--from 15 Castro that he showed to all of us who were there at that 16 meeting that day, and the letter was saying, "Well, after 120
17 days or 90 days or 200 days that I have been in the Sierra
18 Mastros, in the hills, you haven't done anything yet."

19 It was a kind of a letter that was really trying to make 20 him feel like a shit, and I know this was a much more
21 complicated thing and it was only going to be the students who 22 were going to do it.

23 Then, in came people from other organizations and 24 relatives in the other organizations, the far right, and 25 ex-politicians like Sandro and people like that and I saw him

1 that day and he said, "I will be in touch with you," and h
2 never got in touch with me.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Did there come a time when Cubela returned
4 to Miami?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us approximately when that 7 was?

8 Mr. Espinosa. It must have been the end of 1957.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. And from the period?

10 Mr. Espinosa. It was the middle of '57, three or four
11 months after that time of the Presidential Palace.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. From the period of mid '57 through the 13 first part of 1959, what was your association with Cubela?

14 Mr. Espinosa. You see, everybody was so burned up all of 15 the time in Havana, everybody had to go to the hills and I had 16 a very good relationship with the son of the actual president
17 of the senate in Cuba at the time, and he was a very good
18 friend of mine.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Who was that?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Alfred Gonzalez.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Would you tell us about the old man first?

22 Mr. Espinosa. The old man was Anselmo Alliegro and he 23 was president of the Senate at the time, and he was one of the 24 big shots. I met his step-son when I was in Louisiana State
25 and we were close friends.

1 So, I was somebody who could be in Havana all of the time
2 and more or less protected and I could have the liberty to go
3 places and meet people and pass messages and go back to the 4 hills and so on without much risk of anything happening to me.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. So, where was Rolando Cubela during this
6 period then up until the time when Batista left the first of 7 January?

8 Mr. Espinosa. He was in the hills all of the time.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. What was his group and what relation did
10 they have with the Castro group?

11 Mr. Espinosa. They had no relation at all.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. They were fighting independently?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Independently, and trying to get to Havana
3 before Castro did, and so you have an idea what the realities
4 were at the time, when Castro sent Che Guevara from Oriente
5 Province to the Province of Santa Clara. And I think that he
6 had 150 or 160 men.

7 In Santa Clara there were plenty of people fighting,
8 because this was not such an isolated place as Oriente was,
9 and it was not only the student group; there was also the 10 people of the William Morgan group which were the third front,
11 and they alone with 2,500 people. But Castro wanted to have a
12 chair over there somehow to control the situation, and one of 13 the things, or the orders was to dispose of Rolando Menoya.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. You are saying one of the missions of Che
15 Guevara was to eliminate or kill both Menoya and Cubela so
16 that Castro would be the only leader?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. How do you have that information?

19 Mr. Espinosa. From Cubela and from other people who were 20 there at the time, because the thing is that somehow they 21 found out by some of the students from the University of 22 Oriente who were with Castro.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there any confrontation with either
24 Che Guevara or Castro?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Che arrived there and took him and put him

1 under custody. So there was another thing back and forth from
2 Oriente to Santa Clara until the guy was relieved, but he was
3 three or four days under custody.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately what time period was this;
5 can you pinpoint that for us?

6 Mr. Espinosa. This would have been October, September or 7 October of 1958.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Batista leaves Havana approximately the 9 first of January of 1959?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. What arrangements, if any, were made
12 between the various groups then?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. How did it come about that Fidel Castro
15 then came to power and Cubela and Menoya and some of the other
16 leaders did not come to power?

17 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know. I always wondered about 18 that myself. And as I said to you, I used to be in the 19 hospital room with Rolando at the time when he was wounded,
20 when he was going through the operation with the arm, and I
21 was there when Castro came to see him, and when Che came to 22 see him and Raul Castro came to see him, and when the other
23 leaders from the student groups came to see him. They had 24 discussions about this and, first of all, they were all of the 25 people, wiser people, better trained by the Communists of

1 course, and they knew exactly what we were doing and we didn't
2 know exactly what we were doing. We were fighting a war and
3 once the war was over, we didn't know what to do and we didn't
4 have any ambition of power.

5 And when I say "we," I don't count and I am talking about
6 the people who were there; mostly I am talking about Rolando,
7 and there was no ambition of power or any of that. There was
8 just to get the guy out and that is it. Our aim was to stop,
9 when these people's aims were very well planned for far ahead.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Did there come a time when you and Cubela
11 split as to your views of Castro?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us approximately when that
14 happened, and can you describe how you came apart?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Well, as I said at the beginning, when he
16 came into Havana, immediately they called me and they said,
17 "Rolando is going to be here in about one hour and they want
18 you to be at the University."

19 He came in 15 or 20 minutes late, and he said to me, I
20 think we are going to have a lot of problems with Castro and 21 the 26th of July as a symbolic thing, because so many of our
22 friends got killed on the attack of the Presidential Palace,
23 and Antonio was killed that day, and not there but another
24 part of Havana, and we went and took the Presidential Palace
25 as a gesture and a symbolic thing.

1 The first two or three months we were together all of the
2 time. Then I started disagreeing with him on things, and I
3 guess I was a wise ass at the time, especially about the 4 things that we were letting Castro get away with, especially 5 where he had to take absolute power over everything and we
6 were getting bull shit in return. And the fact was I never
7 liked the guy; and as a matter of fact, I hated him, and I
8 never knew his politics because I don't know.

9 Some people find out their wives or girls are fooling
10 around with somebody else for two or three years, and just 11 from the beginning I thought this was going the wrong way. So
12 I started having arguments with Rolando and asking for 13 explanations from him, because this was not what we fought for 14 and not what our friends died for, and "So you are becoming an 15 accomplice of Castro and I cannot understand this."

16 He said, "Why do you say that, and why are you putting up 17 with this?"

18 I said, "And they are taking land away from people and 19 they are shooting soldiers who never shot in the whole war and 20 just shooting them and there was no trial, and I have seen the 21 trials and they were mockeries, and whether they were guilty
22 or not guilty, they got shot and that is it."

23 So he wouldn't give me the right answers, and he would 24 say, "Well, there is a revolution." And I said, "I don't
25 understand that, Rolando, and I don't understand it, and I

1 don't understand the things that are happening, and you are
2 being an accomplice because you are in a position to do
3 something and you are not doing anything, and you are playing
4 his ball game."

5 In the beginning we discussed these matters, and then we
6 started getting very close in, and I really didn't understand
7 it. And to the point one day we had a discussion in my house
8 and he told my mother, "When your son goes to jail, then call
9 me," and I said, "I won't call you."

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Rolando said that to your mother?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately when did you leave Havana?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I left Havana in 1959.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. When in 1959?

15 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know if it was October or 16 September or November; somewhere between October and December.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. During the period of time that you came to 18 the United States and went to train in the Bay of Pigs and 19 came back to the United States, did you have any contact with 20 Cubela?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Well, some guys and myself, we thought at 22 the time we were allowed to go to South America and I and some 23 others were going to Panama or Nicaragua, and so we got the 24 idea -- and there is one thing I forgot to tell you.

25 At the beginning when things began, there was a lot of

1 friction with the 26th of July, and we took all of the weapons.
2 from an arsenal in some base outside of Havana, and it must
3 have been 500 M-1 rifles and a few 50-caliber machine guns and 4 couple of hundred of Thompson submachine guns, and some
5 mortars, a 190 tank gun, and somehow all of the things were 6 hidden by me.

7 Rolando told me to hide it in a place, that we were going
8 to need it one day. So I hid it in my house, and we had a
9 very big house, so big that when they came looking for these 10 they couldn't find it because it was like an old castle and 11 there were like hidden doors, hidden panels and things like 12 that.

13 They came looking for it and they didn't find it, and so
14 about two or three weeks after that I put the whole thing in a
15 truck and took it to a resort very near to where I was born,
16 in Varadero.

17 So I took it over there and we decided, a few guys who 18 were going to do something, go to the hills or do something,
19 and we came out with this idea to go to some other country and 20 do something so we could get away and cover our activities.

21 We got caught.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. By whom?

23 Mr. Espinosa. By Castro.

24 We got caught, and we were taken to Military
25 Intelligence, and there were about six or seven of us, and

1 they got all the weapons. Someone squealed and they
2 infiltrated somebody in the group. And I don't know what was
3 going to happen, but it was a little bit scary at the time,
4 and so we were uncommunicated for several days and we were
5 questioned, and we were sticking to our story we going to 6 Guatemala or someplace else. And I can't remember now, and 7 Rolando was in Spain and my mother called him and he came over
8 and he got us out.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there any particular reason he was in 10 Spain at that time?

11 Mr. Espinosa. He was a playboy.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. It had nothing to do with Castro?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No. He went over there to have a good
14 time, and so actually the threat that he made, "Call me and I 15 will help you," and my mother called him and he came over and 16 he got us out.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. After your period in the United States,
18 did you have any contact with him?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No. The only time I had contact was when 20 I told you that I went to Paris and these people contacted me.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. I am going to get to that, and I want to 22 establish whether or not, during the years that you were in 23 the United States and training for the Bay of Pigs and were in 24 New York, that you had no direct contact with him and did you
25 have any indirect contact through mutual friends?

1 Mr. Espinosa. Never.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately what year did you go to
3 Spain?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I went to Spain -- you mean now, in the 5 last few years?

6 Mr. Hornbeck. No.

7 Mr. Espinosa. I never went to Spain. I told you the 8 other day.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately what year did you go to
10 Paris?

11 Mr. Espinosa. I went to Paris in 1964 or 1965.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Would it help you to know --

13 Mr. Espinosa. I think it was 1964 or '65.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Would it refresh your memory that,
15 according to government records, you came to New York and 16 first contacted Immigration sometime approximately in June or 17 thereabouts in 1965?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Now would your New York trip then help
20 your memory as to when you first went to Paris?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I came back to New York from Paris
22 and I contacted them immediately, and so this must have been
23 five days before or six days before.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us why you went to Paris?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No. It was just a trip and I went to

1 Paris.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. You were engaged at that time in no anti-
3 Castro activities?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. You were not working for the CIA at that
6 time?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately when did you end your 9 services or employment with the CIA?

10 Mr. Espinosa. I would say in the end of 1961.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. When you arrived in Paris, did you have a
12 contact who gave you some information about Cubela?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. What was the name of that contact?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Jose Trascancos.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. How long had you known Jose Trascancos?

17 Mr. Espinosa. All of my life.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. What was his position in Paris at the time
19 that you met him in 1965?

20 Mr. Espinosa. He was working at the Cuban Consulate.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. How long had he been with the Cuban
22 Consulate in Paris, if you know?

23 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know, but for a couple of years or 24 three at the time.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. I assume by the fact that he was working

1 abroad in the Cuban Consulate that he enjoyed some confidence
2 with the Castro government?

3 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know about that. I think at the 4 time the government wasn't established enough to really clamp
5 down on the people that they should or should not have in 6 their consulates, and there were so many things to put 7 together over there and it was a very bad situation, and 8 otherwise, he wouldn't have been there and they hadn't clamped
9 down.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. What information did he relate to you that 11 involved Rolando Cubela?

12 Mr. Espinosa. He told me that he had seen Cubela in 13 Paris; that there was something going on but he didn't want to 14 tell me, and he wanted somebody else to tell me the whole
15 thing.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Is there some reason why he didn't want to 17 relate the story to you?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Because he didn't know much about it but 19 he knew they had tried to get ahold of me but he said,
20 "Rolando is involved with the CIA and there is something
21 happening, and I think you should see Robreno."

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Could you identify Robreno for us, as to 23 who he is and where he was from and what was your relationship
24 with him.

25 Mr. Espinosa. His name is George Robreno and he is a

1 punk.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. When you say "punk," do you mean he had
3 some criminal background?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know, but he is a delinquent, let 5 us put it that way. I am not a full-time delinquent as he is.
6 He was involved with the student movement in Havana and he
7 knew Rolando very well.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. When you were describing him as a
9 delinquent, do you mean he would engage in crime or do
10 anything for money, or what is it?

11 Mr. Espinosa. He was a bad boy; and do you know what a 12 bad boy is? He was a bad boy. When he used to be a kid, if 13 there was a blind man crossing a street with a stick, he would 14 take the stick from the blind man, is that right? That is the 15 kind of thing he would do when he was a kid and man, what he 16 grew up to be.

17 He was with Castro's government and he was at one point
18 the head of some revolutionary tribunals and he carried out a
19 lot of death sentences.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. What was he doing at the time that you
21 heard his name in 1965?

22 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know what he was doing in Madrid,
23 but I know that he had gotten into so many problems with the 24 government in Cuba that they just said, "Okay," and they put 25 him into prison for something, and I don't know exactly what

1 it was, and they said, "Okay, either you stay here forever or
2 you leave the country and we don't want you here anymore."

3 Mr. Hornbeck. He was living in Madrid at the time you
4 were in Paris?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. And when Rolando started his thing
6 with the CIA, I guess he was talking to him, too.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. How were you going to meet him? Were you
8 going to go to Spain?

9 Mr. Espinosa. I was going to go to Spain. At the time I
10 had one of his alien American passports, since I never had my 11 own passport because the Spanish government, it would take
12 them a month --

13 Mr. Hornbeck. So the CIA originally took your passport
14 from you?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Were you in touch with the CIA at all when 17 you were in Paris?

18 Mr. Espinosa. No.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. All right. So you did not get to Spain?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I didn't get to Spain. And I called him
21 on the telephone and I said "I am sending you a ticket. Come 22 over and see me in Paris." And he was the first one who told
23 me the story.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you just relate to us, in summary,
25 what he told you about this particular involvement of Cubela?

1 Mr. Espinosa. That Cubela had been talking to some CIA
2 people; that there was going to be an uprising or a coup or
3 something down in Cuba led by Cubela and a few other people
4 who were in the government at the time, or in the army, and
5 that for some reason Cubela didn't trust Williamson in Spain.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you identify who Williamson was?

7 Mr. Espinosa. What I had been led to believe, Williamson
8 was head of the CIA in Spain at the time.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there a reason given to you as to why
10 Cubela did not trust him?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. He said to me that he was living --
12 first he was an alcoholic and living with this Cuban girl who 13 had taken information from him, taken files with her and went 14 back to Cuba.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. This is information that you heard?

16 Mr. Espinosa. This is what they told me; why Rolando
17 didn't want to speak to Williamson any longer.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. You are getting this information from 19 Cubela?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. And how much truth is involved in 21 this I can't say. So that Rolando didn't want to talk to him
22 anymore and that I should come over here as a good CIA man,
23 and I said "I am no longer with the CIA," and they said "We 24 want you to get in touch with them and tell them all of this."

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Now, had your original contact in Paris

1 mentioned to you he thought you were in the CIA?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Had he called you to come to Paris or you
4 just came to Paris independently?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No. It was somebody that if I ever went
6 to Paris I was going to call.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. So Paris was entirely your idea?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Entirely a pleasure trip.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there any particular reason why you
10 would spend your own personal money to have Cubela come to 11 Paris from Spain?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. Still, you know, I think $150 or 13 something, for something as important as this, I could send my 14 friend and my country, it wasn't going to make such a big hole
15 in my pocket.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Did Cubela say anything about any Soviets
17 in Cuba during this conversation?

18 Mr. Espinosa. No. They didn't say anything about 19 Soviets in Cuba, but Blanco -- I cannot remember his first 20 name; we used to call him the crazy Blanco -- I met him and 21 he was on his way to Cuba from Prague, Czechoslovakia, and he 22 was on his way from Russia to Cuba via Czechoslovakia and 23 Paris and he was the one who mentioned about the Russian
24 technicians; to make sure and to make sure to tell the CIA
25 that if there was going to be any kind of doublecrossing of

1 this operation, they were going to take care of these Russian
2 technicians who were advisors, or whatever they were, who were
3 in their particular place.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. All right. How did you know Blanco?

5 Mr. Espinosa. I knew him from Cuba.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. And was it just coincidence that Blanco
7 was coming through Paris at the same time that you were there?

8 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. How did he know how to contact you?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Because anybody who would come to Paris
11 will always contact this guy Trasancos; at least this kind of 12 people because we all knew each other from Cuba.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Had Blanco been with you and Cubela in 14 activities prior to 1959?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. When Blanco gave you this particular
17 information about the Soviet technicians, was there anyone
18 else present during the conversation?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No, it was only he and I.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Were there any conversations between you,
21 Blanco and Robreno in Paris?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. And no conversations between you, Blanco,
24 and Trasancos?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No. But there were conversations between

1 Cubela, Trasancos and myself.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us what the conversation is?

3 Mr. Espinosa. The one I mentioned before, everything
4 that Cubela told me about the CIA and Williamson in Spain he
5 said to me in front of Trasancos.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Is your testimony that there was then an 7 agreement between the three of you that Cubela needed to 8 change his CIA contact?

9 Mr. Espinosa. I didn't agree to anything. All I said,
10 was they landed the story on me in the middle of my Parisian
11 vacation, and because it was Rolando and it was something that 12 I could have some importance or sense in the future, I came 13 over here and I contacted them the best way I could.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. In other words, you were going to be the 15 messenger for the contacts they felt that they didn't have?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, more or less, that was the idea.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. And you then traveled from Paris to New 18 York?

19 Mr. Espinosa. That is right.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. And who pays for your ticket?

21 Mr. Espinosa. If I go to Paris and I live in the States,
22 I have to have a round-trip ticket.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. What I am getting at, so you understand
24 the purpose of the deposition, we have to ask as much detail
25 as possible, and what I am really getting at is whether or not

1 the CIA paid for any part of this operation.

2 Mr. Espinosa. No. I went to London and then to Paris
3 and then to come back to New York 15 days later, and this
4 happened when I was there, and I came back to New York on my 5 ticket originally purchased by me, and I was never refunded by 6 CIA or any other government agency.

7 I got to New York and I contacted Mr. Cavasantos.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. He was an officer with the Immigration
9 Service?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. And you had some previous relationship; is 12 that true?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us briefly what that was?

15 Mr. Espinosa. He lifted two bans against traveling, and 16 all the things that I mentioned before.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. You first contacted him, and what did you
18 tell him?

19 Mr. Espinosa. I said, "I have to contact someone in the 20 CIA, and of course I have no idea how to contact anybody."

21 So he said, "Okay." He picked up the telephone and he 22 called somebody in the FBI office in New York and he sent me
23 to see this fellow.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. This is first the FBI?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you go to the FBI office or did the
2 agents come to see you?

3 Mr. Espinosa. I went to the FBI office.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. How many agents did you talk to?

5 Mr. Espinosa. I talked to one fellow.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. How much of the Cubela's story that you
7 learned in Paris did you relate to him?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. What did you tell him, basically?

10 Mr. Espinosa. I told him, I guess he must have spoken to 11 Cavasantos before, and I said, "Look, I just came from Europe;
12 there is something happening and I would have to contact
13 someone in the CIA, and I used to work for them and I was 14 involved in the Bay of Pigs. Anything you want to check what 15 I am telling you, you can check with that."

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you mention Cubela's name to either
17 Cavasantos or to the FBI?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Maybe; I can't say for sure, but maybe.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Your best memory is that you did not 20 discuss much of the details?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. At some point were you put in contact with 23 the CIA?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us where the meeting took

1 place and how many people were present?

2 Mr. Espinosa. The meeting took place at the FBI office
3 in New York, and there was only one person present.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. This is someone from the Agency?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Again, I assume he was.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Could you physically describe this
7 individual?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. He was a man in the late forties or 9 early fifties, gray hair, and he must have been blond, but 10 very heavy gray at the time, and blue eyes.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. Glasses?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No glasses. Very well fit and very 13 handsome guy.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Approximately how tall and how much did he 15 weigh?

16 Mr. Espinosa. He was, I would say, about 5'10" or 5'11",
17 170 pounds.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. During your conversation with this 19 individual, did you relate all of the details of the 20 information that you had learned in Paris?

21 Mr. Espinosa. I did.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you include the portion told you by 23 Blanco about the alternative plan with the Soviet technicians?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. What reaction, if any, did you get from

1 this particular individual?

2 Mr. Espinosa. He was a very cool, composed man, and he
3 said "I am going to Washington and I will contact you in the 4 next couple of days or three, maybe, and maybe we will go to 5 Spain together or somebody will go with you."

6 I was so upset about this that I got a friend of mine in 7 New York, through Senator Javits, to get me a meeting in 8 Washington here with some sub-secretary of foreign affairs in 9 charge of the Cuban thing, and I never heard from this guy and 10 time was going by, and I told this friend of mine and through 11 Javits he got me to come here and see this guy, and I came 12 here and I told him the whole story. And he said, "We will 13 get in touch with you," and they never did.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you have any idea who it was that you
15 met with in Washington?

16 Mr. Espinosa. No.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever keep a diary or on a card?

18 Mr. Espinosa. I could find out eventually if I wanted
19 to.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you think that you might be able to do
21 that?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. I would have to call this guy and 23 have him call Javits and trace the thing back to the time when 24 it happened, but I am sure it can be traced.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you remember the building where you

1 came to in Washington to speak with this particular
2 individual?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Your best memory is that it was some
5 official in the State Department?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, it was some official in the State
7 Department; some kind of sub-secretary or something in charge
8 of Cuban affairs. But I was there and he didn't put me on to 9 some monkey room. I know I saw somebody, the right person.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. I assume that you did wait the two or 11 three days in New York before you contacted your friend to 12 reach Senator Javits?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I waited longer than that. I waited a
14 couple of weeks and nothing happened, and then I got in touch
15 with this guy because I knew he is very friendly with Javits,
16 and I said, "I know you have friends in Washington, and all of 17 that, and there is something that I have to discuss."

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever think about contacting the 19 CIA directly through one of your old contacts?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I never had any contacts. What contacts?
21 They are guys living in Miami for two or three or four months,
22 and one day they disappear, and "Freddy Gomez," and you never 23 see him again, and maybe he is sent to Guatemala or Central
24 Europe, or whatever, and then you see another guy and you
25 don't call them. They call you.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there any bad feeling between you and
2 the Agency when you terminated your relationship with them in 3 1961?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know. From my part it was a lot
5 of bad feeling.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. You felt you had not been treated fairly
7 by the Agency?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Not me. I felt a lot of people got killed
9 for nothing.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. All right. After you came to Washington
11 and discussed this particular situation, what was the next
12 thing that you did?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Let me make a parenthesis now. This guy,
14 one of the reasons why I assumed he must have been from the 15 CIA, is when I touched the thing about George Robreno,
16 immediately he said to me, "El Maga," this is like a name that 17 only people that are close to him or that know him very well
18 or from the Agency would know his name.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Could you spell that?

20 Mr. Espinosa. M-a-g-a. It is magician in English. And 21 he didn't have any accent when he said "El Maga."

22 Mr. Hornbeck. You are discussing the conversation with 23 the fellow you assumed to be from the Agency in New York when 24 you first arrived?

25 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. And he was saying to me, "How much

1 do you trust what he said?" and I said "You know how he is."
2 And he said, "Yes, I know how he is," but the guy knew the 3 background of him.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. When you mentioned Blanco, did the
5 individual you assumed to have been from the Agency come up
6 with his nickname?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he act as though he knew who you were 9 talking about?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he ask you for any identifying 12 information about Blanco?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. During this time then that you were in 15 Washington in 1965, did you ever contact Mike McLaney to see
16 if he could help in some fashion?

17 Mr. Espinosa. I would have contacted Mike McLaney to 18 help me in other things, but not to get me in contact with the 19 CIA.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you contact Mike McLaney for any 21 social or personal reasons?

22 Mr. Espinosa. At that time, no. For sure, every time I
23 went to Miami, and all of the time I lived in the States,
24 every time I went to Miami I contacted Mike; every time. But 25 I contacted him socially to have a drink or go whoring around

1 or something; nothing to do up to that second attempt with the
2 plane, and that was it.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you return to New York then after your
4 Washington trip?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you receive any contact from any 7 government agency?

8 Mr. Espinosa. No.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. And that includes the FBI?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. So you did not hear from the FBI?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. How long did you stay in New York, if you
14 can estimate?

15 Mr. Espinosa. I left New York in 1967.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. So you spent the next approximately two
17 and a half years in New York?

18 Mr. Espinosa. No. I would say the next two years in New 19 York, because this was June or July of 1965, and I left in 20 March or April of 1967; so a little bit less than a year.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you have any contact directly or 22 indirectly with Cubela during the time that you were in New 23 York?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you hear from Blanco or Robreno or

1 your contact in Paris?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. Robreno wrote me a letter one time
3 asking me to put my name to a document, and he wanted to get a
4 visa to come to the States and he wanted me to sponsor him and
5 he needed two sponsors. And he wrote me a letter on a paper,
6 and I signed my name to the sponsorship, and that is the only
7 time.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he actually arrive, to your knowledge?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No, they never gave him a visa.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Until the time that Cubela was arrested,
11 did you have any information about him personally or about the 12 particular plot person?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Nothing whatsoever. In my mind I thought,
14 well, probably he got wise to the whole thing and just dropped
15 it, because some time elapsed between the time that I spoke to 16 his people in Paris and until the CIA and the time he got 17 caught in Cuba.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Was your first knowledge that he was 19 arrested from some public source or from a personal source?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Public source.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell what that was?

22 Mr. Espinosa. It was a newspaper.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you recognize the names of other
24 persons arrested with him?

25 Mr. Espinosa. I recognized the name of Blanco, and there

1 was somebody else arrested. And the first thing I read about
2 it, there were four people arrested, and I knew Blanco and I
3 didn't know the others.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. I am sure then if you have the public
5 accounts of that trial, you know that Cubela was not executed,
6 and did you find that a strange event?

7 Mr. Espinosa. Yes and no.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us why "yes" and "no"?

9 Mr. Espinosa. "Yes," because, to my knowledge, Castro
10 had never commuted anybody's death sentence in Cuba yet, and 11 on the other hand, I knew he liked the guy very much.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. It was a personal relationship between 13 Cubela and Castro?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. Whatever it was, love, hate, or the 15 faggots -- I don't know what it was -- but they had a
16 relationship, an especial relationship between them.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you give us any examples of a special
18 relationship between the two?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I remember one time when Rolando
20 pulled a gun on Castro in front of his bodyguards and 21 everything and called him every name in the book, and of 22 course nobody moved or said anything, but I thought when this
23 is over, he is going to go to the can forever, and nothing
24 happened to him.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. I take it this is sometime still in 1959?

1 Mr. Espinosa. This was at that time, and he just put his
2 arm on him and he said "You have such a temper" and talked him
3 out of everything.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Would you describe Cubela as an individual
5 having a very quick temper or very emotional person?

6 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, extremely.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. Would you describe him as unstable?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Have you directly or indirectly received
10 any information about Cubela since the time that he was sent 11 to prison in Cuba?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you have any information whether or not
14 he is still alive or anything?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. What I hear is that he is alive and 16 he is working as a doctor and he is not having such a bad
17 life.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. How would you get this kind of 19 information?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Because I can't remember now, I think I
21 had this from Trasancos in Paris, but there is some kind of --
22 I don't know if he was a diplomat or if he is a French
23 engineer who is working in some kind of project in Cuba or was 24 working in some kind of a project in Cuba, and I know that 25 this person knew Cubela's mother and somehow news of him has

1 gone back and forth to Europe from Cuba. I hear he is working
2 as a doctor and the beginning was very tough, and then he is
3 working as a doctor and he is not having it so bad; but he is
4 alive and he is in prison.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. Were you told of the method by which
6 Cubela was supposed to assassinate Castro?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No. I heard the story about the rifle and
8 the telescopic site, and I had a story that he had met Artime,
9 which of course I thought was stupid of him, and I had a story
10 that Artime had promised him some boats through the CIA to get 11 him out.

12 I repeat to you today what I said the other day, the 13 whole thing doesn't make sense to me. And on one hand I hear
14 this, and of course it is very difficult to judge something
15 when you are being told by third parties, and on the one hand
16 I hear that there is going to be an insurrection, let others
17 call it that way, or a military uprising of certain people in 18 the country; and on the other hand I hear that Cubela is going 19 to shoot the guy. And if you are going to shoot the guy and 20 there is going to be an insurrection, why do you need some 21 boats to take you out?

22 Once you do that you have to stay in and see it through.
23 And you follow me, if there is going to be an insurrection and 24 you are going to be a leader, how the hell are you going to 25 shoot the guy and tanks are going through the streets and

1 you are going to take a boat and leave the country?

2 There are a number of things that I tried to be very
3 logical about, and I try to be a very logical person all of 4 the time, but especially when they are logical, I try to be
5 more logical and I am objective about things. I don't 6 understand it.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. When you heard these stories about Artime
8 being involved, or a rifle with a scope being involved, what
9 was the source of that information?

10 Mr. Espinosa. This I heard from Robreno.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. Was this during the same discussions in 12 Paris before New York?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Did Rubreno know Artime, to your 15 knowledge?

16 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know. I think maybe he was with 17 Rolando when he had the meeting with Artime; maybe, but I am
18 not sure. But I know they had never been friends before.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Are you saying your information from 20 Rubreno was that Artime met in Madrid with Cubela?

21 Mr. Espinosa. I can't remember if it was Madrid, but 22 positively that he had met Cubela.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Was your information that the CIA had 24 arranged this meeting, or did you have any knowledge of the 25 CIA at that time?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No. He told me that he had been in touch
2 with the CIA and he had been in touch with Arttime, but at the
3 moment I was led to believe it was the CIA who had arranged
4 the meeting, and I would have been surprised if that was so.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. I want to be very specific as to the 6 information that you are getting from Robreno and from any 7 other source.

8 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. So just getting back to what he told you,
10 Robreno says to you, on the one hand Cubela has been in touch
11 with Williamson from the CIA, and he also tells you Cubela has 12 met with Arttime, and you are not sure whether Rubreno tells 13 you that Cubela and Arttime met in Madrid. Is that a correct
14 summary?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. He told me that they met, but I
16 can't remember whether it was in Madrid or another place.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Was there anything about the use of a
18 rifle and a silencer by Cubela that you would have found
19 strange in an assassination plot to kill Castro?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I would have found it very strange because 21 Castro is a touch guy and you can never hunt him with a rifle
22 in the sense you never know where he is going to be or which 23 street he is going to be passing through. So I would think it
24 is very, very unlikely, and especially Rolando knows this very 25 well, better than I do, that this is a kind of a guy that

1 is practically impossible to hunt with a rifle.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Would the special relationship you
3 discussed before between Castro and Cubela have presented some
4 special opportunities for Cubela?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Incredibly special opportunities;
6 exceptionally special.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you give us something on that?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Let us say one day Rolando could find out
9 that Castro was in his home outside Havana, and he could have 10 gone over there at a day or night, and even at 5:00 o'clock in 11 the morning and tell the guards "I am going to see Castro,"
12 and they would have let him in without objection.

13 Mr. Blackmer. You were friends with Carlos Hernandez?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

15 Mr. Blackmer. You went on two raids with him that were 16 aborted and you trained with him in Panama and Guatemala. Did
17 you recognize that he had a special relationship with Manuel
18 Artime?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know the extent of that?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Blackmer. You personally disliked Artime; is that 23 correct?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Blackmer. Did you personally know him?

1 Mr. Espinosa. Not very much, I know him. I trained him,
2 in a way.

3 Mr. Blackmer. You were training in Guatemala, I
4 understand?

5 Mr. Espinosa. And in Panama. And he came to Panama, and
6 I was assigned to give him the demolition training, a crash
7 course in demolition. So I was in touch with him for a few
8 days, closely, and I didn't think much of him, really. And do
9 you want me to tell you the story about that?

10 Mr. Blackmer. I don't think that that will be necessary.

11 What was the feeling generally among the exiles that you
12 had contact with about Arttime and his position with the CIA?

13 Mr. Espinosa. It was about the same.

14 Mr. Blackmer. What is that?

15 Mr. Espinosa. They disliked the idea that a puppet was 16 being imposed on them.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever discuss this with Carlos, his 18 relationship with Arttime?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No, not really.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever talk to Robreno about your 21 dislike or distrust for Arttime?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Blackmer. Did you distrust Arttime also?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Blackmer. Do you think he was personally motivated

1 and not patriotically motivated?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Did you trust Robreno?

4 Mr. Espinosa. When it comes to something I had to do
5 with Cubela, I would trust him.

6 Mr. Blackmer. You think he would not have told Fidel
7 about Rolando's working with the CIA?

8 Mr. Espinosa. He was very loyal to Cubela.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Where were his loyalties with respect to 10 Castro?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No, he is not by nature a very loyal
12 person or very legal person, but Cubela was like his hero.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Are you familiar with an individual named
14 Orlando Bosch?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No.

16 Mr. Blackmer. Dr. Orlando Bosch?

17 Mr. Espinosa. No. I have heard about him.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Have you had any contact with him at all?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Blackmer. Had you heard that he might have been
21 operating in this country during 1963 and had you heard anything
22 about any of his activities in this country at that time?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know an individual named Julio
25 Lobo in Havana?

1 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

2 Mr. Blackmer. What is the extent of your knowledge of
3 him?

4 Mr. Espinosa. A friend of mine was married to a niece of
5 his, and I have seen the guy three or four times in my life.

6 Mr. Blackmer. Was he active in any of the groups in 7 Havana?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Not that I know of.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know if he was active in any of the 10 Cuban exile movements?

11 Mr. Espinosa. I heard that the guy is giving money, but 12 personally I was never involved with anything that he 13 contributed to or anything like that.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Have you ever heard of an individual named
15 Ricardo Morales Navarete?

16 Mr. Espinosa. It sounds familiar, but I can't see the 17 face. But it sounds familiar.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know what you would have heard him
19 in connection with?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No.

21 Have you got a picture of him or anything?

22 Mr. Blackmer. No.

23 Would he have been a hired killer, an assassin?

24 Mr. Espinosa. When you mentioned the name, it is not so
25 much Morales, but the first name, it rings a bell, but I can't

1 see it.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Could he have been active with you in the 3 anti-Batista movement with you or with someone else?

4 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know. I can't place the guy, and
5 so if I can't place the guy ---

6 Mr. Blackmer. How about David Morales?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Blackmer. Monkey Morales?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No.

10 Mr. Blackmer. Have you ever heard of an individual named
11 Antonio Veciana?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Are you familiar with Alpha 66?

14 Mr. Espinosa. I have heard of it.

15 Mr. Blackmer. Do you have any information about one of 16 the founders or leaders?

17 Mr. Espinosa. No.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know an individual or have you
19 heard of an individual named Morris Bishop?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No.

21 Mr. Blackmer. When you were in Cuba in 1957, '58, and 22 '59, have you had any contact with Santiago, Cuba, or did you
23 ever go there?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No.

25 Mr. Blackmer. Are you familiar with a corporation named

1 Maubay Mining Company?

2 Mr. Espinosa. No.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Once again, you did meet Frank Sturgis in 4 Miami. Were you aware of Frank Sturgis at all in Havana right
5 around the time Castro took over?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. You mentioned that you are familiar with
8 Pedro Diaz Lanz. Did you know in 1958 he was appointed head
9 of the Cuban Air Force by Castro?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

11 Mr. Blackmer. And at the same time and somewhat later,
12 he appointed Sturgis as a director of security for the air
13 force?

14 Mr. Espinosa. I didn't know that.

15 Mr. Blackmer. You were not aware of that at all?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Not until just right now.

17 Mr. Blackmer. Sturgis also had a relationship with some 18 of the casinos in Havana and was frequently seen at these 19 casinos. Do you recall, if you think back, whether you might 20 have seen him?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Not whatsoever?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. When you were going on these various raids
25 from keys, as we discussed, three or four raids after the Bay

1 of Pigs, did you ever come in contact with an individual named
2 Wallace Shanley?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No.

4 Mr. Blackmer. He would have been with the government,
5 either Immigration or Customs?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Did you ever come in contact with any
8 Americans with Customs or Immigration and Naturalization?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No.

10 Mr. Blackmer. When you were in the June 15th detention
11 from the attempted raid, I understand they seized a 1957
12 Thunderbird belonging to your aunt.

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Blackmer. And you took legal action against Customs.

15 Mr. Espinosa. No, they got the car two years later.

16 Mr. Blackmer. You did not go through an attorney?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Maybe they did, I don't know.

18 Mr. Blackmer. You don't recall that?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No, I didn't.

20 Mr. Blackmer. When we were talking the other day about
21 the two raids, we were talking about the June 15th raid,
22 whether it was just an aborted attempt, but you are dealing 23 with a twin engine Beachcraft airplane where you were going to 24 make these homemade bombs and you were using dynamite.

25 Mr. Espinosa. No, we were using --

1 Mr. Blackmer.. TNT?

2 Mr. Espinosa. No.. We were using napalm.

3 Mr. Blackmer. You had just run special wires out on the 4 wings of the plane and you were going over there, and didn't
5 that seem kind of a gumshoe operation, rather a shoddy
6 operation?

7 Mr. Espinosa. I agree with you.

8 Mr. Blackmer. Did you feel that someone planning it
9 never meant it to be made?

10 Mr. Espinosa. Because the person who was sponsoring it
11 was Mike, and he gave us a means to do it and he didn't get 12 the right bombs and we didn't get the right things; he is not 13 an expert in explosives or in planes.

14 Mr. Blackmer. But you are?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Yes..

16 Mr. Blackmer. And you couldn't do any better than a twin
17 engine Beachcraft?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Well, we didn't ask for any better and we
19 were afraid to ask for a B-25 or B-26.

20 Mr. Blackmer. On the first one, but on the second one
21 you did?

22 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, because he warmed up to the idea.

23 Mr. Blackmer. You are talking about the cost.

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, it was a lot of money.

25 Mr. Blackmer. Quite a lot more for the B-25 than the

1 Beachcraft.

2 Mr. Espinosa. You have to buy it, and it is not very
3 easy to rent a B-25, especially the ones with the right bombs
4 and the whole thing.

5 Mr. Blackmer. The plane you were going to take, the B-25
6 at Ponchartrain, to your knowledge, was fully operational, with 7 bomb bay doors?

8 Mr. Espinosa. I insisted that the bomb racks were in 9 there or I wasn't going to do anything with it.

10 Mr. Blackmer. To your knowledge, you do not know where 11 this plane was going to be obtained or who was going to get
12 it?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No. I heard things about Arizona and I
14 heard they were flying the plane from Canada, and I heard that 15 the plane was going to be flown from South America, and I
16 heard all of this.

17 I told Mike, "I don't want to hear anything; we don't 18 want to know, we don't want to know."

19 Mr. Blackmer. You just told Mike to get the plane?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Do you assume he went through Sam Benton
22 to get the plane?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

24 Mr. Blackmer. That was the first time?

25 Mr. Espinosa. And I wouldn't be surprised if he went

1 through him the second time.

2 Mr. Blackmer. Who else was aware of these operations
3 aside from the group participating, Benton and McLaney and 4 yourself?

5 Mr. Espinosa. Well, I imagine their wives or girl
6 friends and everybody in the operation.

7 Mr. Blackmer. Specifically, any Americans?

8 Mr. Espinosa. No.

9 Mr. Blackmer. Any members of the CIA?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No, for Christ's sake, of course not.

11 Mr. Blackmer. But no other Americans other than Benton?

12 Mr. Espinosa. I wouldn't say Benton. I knew Mike, and 13 if he used Benton, I don't know.

14 Mr. Blackmer. Did you have a meeting in June at the home
15 of Mike McLaney and yourself and say you were discussing this 16 operation, and was there someone present?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Miguel Alvarez.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Was Benton present?

19 Mr. Espinosa. I can't remember. I am not trying to --

20 Mr. Blackmer. Our files indicate that Benton gave the 21 story that he was just there to take pictures and he was there
22 for publicity, and after the raid was successful you were 23 going to play up the publicity aspect of it. Was there any 24 truth to that story?

25 Mr. Espinosa. The first raid or the second one?

1 Mr. Blackmer. The first one.

2 Mr. Espinosa. I was never aware they were going to take
3 any pictures.

4 Mr. Blackmer. What was his role?

5 Mr. Espinosa. As far as I know, the first time he was to 6 rent the plane.

7 Mr. Blackmer. That is all?

8 Mr. Espinosa. That is all.

9 Mr. Blackmer. And when you were detained by the FBI and 10 Customs at the site, where were you coming from and how were 11 you to meet?

12 Mr. Espinosa. You mean over there, in that strip where 13 the Beachcraft was? I was coming from my aunt's house in that 14 Thunderbird, with the napalm, or whatever it was, and I was 15 getting there to be with the rest of the guys and to take 16 over.

17 Mr. Blackmer. You were to meet the plane?

18 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

19 Mr. Blackmer. And who was bringing the plane?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Alpizar.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Do you know a person named William Pawley?
22 You never heard of William Pawley?

23 Mr. Espinosa. An American?

24 Mr. Blackmer. Living in Miami, and he is a war hero
25 from World War II and worked with the Flying Tigers and

1 General Chenault, and also had a business in Cuba, head of a
2 bus system in Cuba and then in Miami, and he was very active
3 in the anti-Castro activities.

4 Mr. Espinosa. No.

5 Mr. Blackmer. You never heard of him?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No.

7 Mr. Blackmer. I have no further questions.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. You mentioned the casino industry in 9 Havana pre-1959. I believe that you frequented some casinos
10 and that is how you met Mike McLaney; is that correct?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. In addition to the Nacional, did you
13 frequent any of the other casinos?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. I used to go out in the evening; all
15 of the guys. We would go to one and then to another one,
16 especially because of the showgirls, really.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. During the time that you were going to the 18 various casinos, did you come to know some of the casino
19 owners?

20 Mr. Espinosa. I was pointed out, like I told you the 21 other day, for example, George Raft was there, and then I saw
22 one guy, I think it was White or Snow.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Larry Snow?

24 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know Dino Cellini?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Eddie Cellini?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Charles Tourine?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Martin Fox Zamora, at the Tropicana?

7 Mr. Espinosa. This is one that I never went to. I was 8 there once, but because it was so far away I never went over
9 there.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Santos Trafficante?

11 Mr. Espinosa. I have heard of him, but I never met him.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Was he ever pointed out to you?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever hear of Santos Trafficante
15 being involved in Miami with any anti-Castro activities?

16 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I have heard about that.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Would you tell us what you heard, first of 18 all, and then perhaps tell us the source of your information?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Okay. What I have heard is that he was 20 helping and trying to do something to help some people like
21 Mike helped me to overthrow Castro.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. When you say helping Mike --

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. Do you know of a relationship between 25 Trafficante and Mike McLaney?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Did Mike McLaney ever mention Trafficante
3 to you?

4 Mr. Espinosa. No.

5 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he ever mention any other American
6 gambling interests who were doing the same kind of activity as 7 he was doing with you?

8 Mr. Espinosa. No.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Other people who you may have seen in 10 Cuba; Jake Lansky?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. At the Riviera?

13 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know his first name. And I
14 remember Lansky, and I remember the name. One time in the 15 Riviera someone saying "That is Meyer Lansky."

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Meyer Lansky?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever meet an individual in Cuba by 19 the name of John Martino? Martino was later arrested by the 20 Castro government and spent several years in jail, and I
21 believe he was released sometime around 1961.

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Guiseppe DeGeorge?

24 Mr. Espinosa. No.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Reuben Miro?

1 Mr. Espinosa. No.

2 Mr. Hornbeck. Mercar Bando?

3 Mr. Espinosa. We all know him.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. You personally were acquainted with him?

5 Mr. Espinosa. I met him a number of times.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Norman Rothman?

7 Mr. Espinosa. I told John that I saw him a couple of 8 times in Cuba, and I saw him a couple of times in Miami.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Were you friendly with him personally?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No, I was friendly with his son, with 11 Cappy Rothman.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. What relationship did you have with Cappy
13 Rothman?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Just the relationship of a man who goes to 15 the bar and has a few drinks, and sometimes we dated girls
16 together or something.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you have conversations with his father
18 Norman?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No, never.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever see Cappy Rothman in Miami?

21 Mr. Espinosa. In Miami; I always saw him in Miami.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Where did you see him?

23 Mr. Espinosa. At the bar that he used to have.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. That was the Biltmore?

25 Mr. Espinosa. It was some hotel in Miami Beach.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Could that have been the Biltmore Terrace?

2 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Was that the same hotel that Roberto
4 Fernandos Miranda was associated with?

5 Mr. Espinosa. That I don't know.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. When you saw Cappy Rothman in Miami, did
7 you ever discuss with him any anti-Castro activities?

8 Mr. Espinosa. Never.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he ever solicit your aid in any kind
10 of Cuban adventure?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Never.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he ever discuss the Castro regime;
13 what it has cost his father and what it had cost him?

14 Mr. Espinosa. Maybe he might have made a comment about 15 that sometime or other. But it was not any depth or anything
16 like that.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever hear of or did you ever meet
18 Kelly or Sam Manarino, from Pittsburgh?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever hear their names mentioned by 21 Cappy or Norman Rothman?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever meet in Cuba or Miami Henry
24 Savaradra and he had a nickname of "Kiki"?

25 Mr. Espinosa. No.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know a Raphael Gener?

2 Mr. Espinosa. You asked me, and I told you the name
3 sounded familiar.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. He had a nickname of Macho, M-a-c-h-o.

5 Mr. Espinosa. No, I remember that much I never did.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever meet any individual in the 7 United States or in Europe by the name of Macho?

8 Mr. Espinosa. No.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. During the time that you were in Paris,
10 did you ever run across any ex-members of the OAS?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No. I didn't even know the OAS existed.
12 You are talking about the French organization?

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Yes.

14 Mr. Espinosa. No, I never did.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. Again, while you were in Europe, did you
16 meet any Soldier of Fortune people who were fighting or going
17 to fight in the Congo?

18 Mr. Espinosa. No. The only people I have known go to 19 the Congo with the Cubans that went with the CIA.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Were those people that you knew in Cuba?

21 Mr. Espinosa. That I knew in Cuba or that I knew from 22 the invasion or from revolutionary activities in Miami. They
23 are the only people that have been in the Congo that I ever
24 met.

25 Mr. Hornbeck. Was Teddy Whitehouse one of those people

1 that you knew?

2 Mr. Espinosa. I know Teddy Whitehouse, but I would like
3 you to tell me who he is.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. He is a pilot.

5 Mr. Espinosa. He is a pilot?

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Yes.

7 Mr. Espinosa. I know the name and I know the guy for
8 sure.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. He was very friendly with Norman Rothman?

10 Mr. Espinosa. I can't even picture the guy, but I know I
11 met the guy.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you, in Cuba, meet a Joseph Merola?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know a Jorge Alonso Pujol?

15 Mr. Espinosa. The old man or the son?

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know the family?

17 Mr. Espinosa. I know the old man was vice president of 18 Cuba during the Prio time.

19 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know his son, Jorge?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No. I have heard of him but I have never 21 met him.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Juan Restoy, Cesar Restoy?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Again I think the name tells me something.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. Jose Aleman?

25 Mr. Espinosa. I met him once.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us whether that was in Cuba
2 or the United States?

3 Mr. Espinosa. No, it was in the United States. I went 4 with Cubela, and I know Major Paez. I went to the 5 Fountainbleau and we stayed in one hotel owned by Jose Aleman,
6 and he had a nickname, and I only met him once.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us approximately what year
8 that was?

9 Mr. Espinosa. It was 1959, March of 1959.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Were you traveling during the 1959 year
11 between Cuba and the United States?

12 Mr. Espinosa. Yes. I went to Miami then and I went to 13 Miami another time, and two times or three times before I
14 finally took off.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. Are these all pleasure trips or was there
16 some business?

17 Mr. Espinosa. Just pleasure trips.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know Orlando Bosch?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Have you ever heard of Orlando Bosch?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Is he related to Pippin Bosch?

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Pippin Bosch was president of Bicardi
23 Rums.

24 Mr. Espinosa. There was a Bosch when the whole thing
25 started with the invasion and the training of the Cubans,

1 although he was under the auspices of the CIA, he was supposed
2 to be fighting for a group called "The Front," and The Front
3 were five different people, representing five different
4 organizations, who were united in order to get enough people
5 to do it, and Bosch was one of them.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. This is the Pippin Bosch?

7 Mr. Espinosa. He is not the one that you are talking
8 about.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Luis Pasado?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. Luis Balbuena?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Dominick Bartone?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. The record will reflect that the witness
16 is shaking his head negatively for all of this.

17 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Raphael Garcia Bongo?

19 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. How did you know him and when did you
21 first meet him and what was your relationship?

22 Mr. Espinosa. There are two brothers; that is Raphael
23 and there is Jorta.

24 I used to have a girl friend when I was very young in 25 Cuba and her cousin was the girl friend of Jorta. Jorta had a

1 very bad German shepherd he wanted to get rid of, and he gave
2 it to me, and I said, "Okay, I will take it." And I had this
3 dog for many years, and that was the extent of my friendship
4 with him. Through him I met his brother, Raphael, who used to 5 be a lawyer in Cuba bon Santos Trafficante.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Is this just common knowledge, or did you
7 know this personally?

8 Mr. Espinosa. It was common knowledge. I think he is 9 doing some time in jail right now.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. He is doing time in Spain now?

11 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, for passing false dollars.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Counterfeit money?

13 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. When did you hear that information?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Many years ago; five or six years ago, or 16 maybe more.

17 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us how you heard the 18 information and any details you may have heard?

19 Mr. Espinosa. I can't recall who told me the story. And 20 this was at the beginning when I went to Spain.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Which would have been approximately when?

22 Mr. Espinosa. That would be 1972.

23 Mr. Hornbeck. And you heard the story then?

24 Mr. Espinosa. That Raphael had been there and that he
25 had ten or fifteen thousand dollars in one hundred dollar

1 notes and he was passing them for two or three days and then
2 they got him and then he got a bunch of years in jail.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you hear whether or not Trafficante
4 had ever tried to help him in Spain?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No, but I heard that he had something to
6 do with Trafficante.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. That the counterfeiting had something to
8 do with Trafficante?

9 Mr. Espinosa. This is what I heard, but you know how 10 people talk to me. It is not very difficult to figure out if 11 Raphael was Trafficante's lawyer in Cuba; now he gets caught
12 in Spain with counterfeit money. There is a likely 13 possibility of the money came from the guy and this is what 14 people are speculating about, or told me at the time.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. When Trafficante was in Cuba, he was 16 arrested sometime in mid-1959, and did you ever hear that?

17 Mr. Espinosa. No.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever hear that Mike McLaney was 19 arrested in Cuba?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. Can you tell us what you heard and from 22 what source?

23 Mr. Espinosa. All I know is that he was living in the 24 country and he was going back to Miami and he was living and 25 they took him and they put him in jail for two or three days.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. Did Mike ever contact you?

2 Mr. Espinosa. No.

3 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he ever discuss how he got arrested
4 with you?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. He never told you?

7 Mr. Espinosa. I am sure that I have heard the story, but
8 things don't really register after some years.

9 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know Marcos Perez Jiminez?

10 Mr. Espinosa. I never met the guy, although I know he 11 used to live very close to Mike's house in Pine Tree Drive in 12 Miami Beach; two or three houses away from Mike.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever have a chance to meet him?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever hear whether or not he was 16 involved in any kind of Cuban activities?

17 Mr. Espinosa. I never have.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Jorge Soto Martinez?

19 Mr. Espinosa. No.

20 Mr. Hornbeck. Evaristo Garcia Vidal?

21 Mr. Espinosa. No.

22 Mr. Hornbeck. Miguel Juarez?

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I know him.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. How do you know him; under what 25 circumstances?

1 Mr. Espinosa. He used to be either the manager or the
2 owner of the 21 Club in Havana, and he was always mixing with 3 big people somehow.

4 Mr. Hornbeck. Did he have any relationship with any of
5 the American gambling interests, if you know?

6 Mr. Espinosa. I am sure he did.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. Anyone you ever saw him with?

8 Mr. Espinosa. No, but he was always hanging around with 9 these people.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Eugenio Leal Pozo?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No.

12 Mr. Hornbeck. Joe Rogers or Joe Stassi?

13 Mr. Espinosa. No.

14 Mr. Hornbeck. Sam Mannarino?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Benito Fernandez?

17 Mr. Espinosa. No.

18 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever go to the Commodore at 19 Denville?

20 Mr. Espinosa. Maybe once or twice in my life.

21 Mr. Hornbeck. At some point you or someone had mentioned
22 that Fidel had a mistress at the Nacional.

23 Mr. Espinosa. Yes.

24 Mr. Hornbeck. What can you tell us about her, who she 25 was, and when he used to visit her and when you saw them

1 there.

2 Mr. Espinosa. I can't tell you who she was, because I
3 saw her a couple of times. She was a colored girl, very light
4 in color, and she was there, and on two occasions, it might
5 have been April or May of 1959, I saw Fidel Castro in the car
6 outside waiting for her, he and a chauffeur. I don't know who
7 she was and I can't remember her name or anything.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you ever meet or hear of a woman by 9 the name of Marita Lorenz?

10 Mr. Espinosa. No.

11 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know or ever meet Larry DeJoseph?

12 Mr. Espinosa. No.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. That name is not familiar to you?

14 Mr. Espinosa. No.

15 Mr. Hornbeck. When you had discussed earlier in your
16 testimony today seeing a file, were you referring to a CIA
17 file or an FBI file, do you know?

18 Mr. Espinosa. I don't know if it was CIA or FBI. I
19 assume maybe it was a Customs file. But I looked through it
20 for about half an hour, and it was very well documented and 21 there were many things that I don't remember that are there.

22 Mr. Blackmer. Were there code names in it; crypto names?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No. It was all straight names, full 24 names, and the whole thing, and the nicknames and friends and 25 so on.

1 Mr. Hornbeck. I don't want to dwell on Fidel Castro's
2 personal life, but during the period that you were in Havana
3 and then for a few years after that when you may have had 4 contacts there, did he have a number of mistresses or was he
5 basically with one woman?

6 Mr. Espinosa. No, he always had a number of them around.

7 Mr. Hornbeck. Were they fairly well known?

8 Mr. Espinosa. I guess some of them were. There was this
9 Lily Gowdy, and I don't know if he was screwing her or not,
10 but he was certainly taking her out. I think this is what I
11 knew, but I was a kid at the time, and I am sure the people
12 older than me knew more.

13 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know a person who worked at the 14 Tropicana casino by the name of Lewis McWillie?

15 Mr. Espinosa. No.

16 Mr. Hornbeck. Did you know an Aldo Vena Serfin?

17 Mr. Espinosa. No.

18 Mr. Blackmer. Did you know Sergio Acacia
19 Smith?

20 Mr. Espinosa. No.

21 Mr. Blackmer. Did you have any relationship with any of 22 the anti-Castro Cuban forces in New Orleans?

23 Mr. Espinosa. No.

24 Mr. Blackmer. Or any of the particular groups that were
25 in New Orleans?

1 Mr. Espinosa. I didn't know there was an anti-Castro
2 force in New Orleans.

3 Mr. Blackmer. You did train in New Orleans at one time?

4 Mr. Espinosa. Yes, I trained in New Orleans. I didn't
5 really train over there. We were taken from Panama and in
6 order to send us to Cuba first we were taken to New Orleans,
7 to an old Marine base or what had been closed for 20 or 30
8 years, and from there we were taken to Biloxi, Mississippi, to 9 a security house.

10 Mr. Blackmer. This is 1960 or 1961?

11 Mr. Espinosa. This is 1961. This is just two or three 12 months before the invasion.

13 Mr. Blackmer. Were you garrisoned on the base,
14 boarded on the base in Biloxi?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Not in Biloxi; in New Orleans.

16 Mr. Blackmer. How about when you went to Biloxi?

17 Mr. Espinosa. They split the guys. There were about 30
18 guys, and they split them different ways, and I was there with 19 about eight or nine guys in a security house with a couple of 20 agents.

21 Mr. Blackmer. On the base?

22 Mr. Espinosa. No, no.

23 Mr. Blackmer. In the town?

24 Mr. Espinosa. It was a security house. That is a house
25 that is used for clandestine operations, and so a security

1 house was a "safe house" in Biloxi, and we lived there, seven
2 or eight guys and one or two CIA guys for about two weeks.

3 Mr. Blackmer. Had you had any contact with Bernard
4 Barker in Havana?

5 Mr. Espinosa. No.

6 Mr. Hornbeck. Eugenio Martinez?

7 Mr. Espinosa. No.

8 Mr. Hornbeck. Virgillo Gonzales?

9 Mr. Espinosa. No.

10 Mr. Hornbeck. Cueto?

11 Mr. Espinosa. No.

12 Mr. Blackmer. We appreciate your coming. Could you
13 possibly give us a telephone number where we can contact you,
14 should the need arise, in London?

15 Mr. Espinosa. Surely. I can give you my home number.

16 Mr. Blackmer. If, in the future, toward the end of the 17 summer, we should like to have you at a hearing, would you
18 have any predisposition against appearing before this 19 committee at a hearing and going over the things that we have 20 just discussed?

21 Mr. Espinosa. Of course not. Count on me.

22 Mr. Blackmer. If you could leave us with the number,
23 then we will be in contact with you.

24 Thank you very much for your cooperation.

25 (Whereupon, at 6:20 p.m., the deposition was concluded.)
